

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ### THE IDEAL SIGHT RESTORER is a device so made that results from its use are permanent. It treats the eye in Nature's own way, with simple massage. Hundreds of people have forwarded unsolicited testimonials to us, and no doubt among them is someone in your city or town who has used the IDEAL SIGHT RESTORER with gratifying results.

One man says: "I am in my seventieth year, and have the Sight Restorer and yourselves to thank for renewed eyesight. I wish I could impress every one afflicted so they would give the Restorer a trial."

Do not fail to write us to-day for our literature—English, German or Spanish. It is free.

THE BUSHWICK GARAGE

The Bushwick Garage is complete in every detail; with the latest improvements for the storage and care of cars. Every detail has been looked after for the convenience and comfort of patrons.

Mr. Blaisdell is the sole agent for Brooklyn and Long Island for the Walter car. This car has no superior and but few equals. It is built of the very best material in all its parts; all the gears are milled from Krupp Chrome Nickel Steel; the axles are of the same quality. It is smooth running, plenty of power, and very simple and easy to operate. A demonstration to the satisfaction of any purchaser will be gladly given.

These cars are built in two sizes—forty and fifty horse power, carrying five or seven people and taking the hardest hills easily on the high gear. The engine is so quiet running that it is hard to tell whether you are riding in an electric car or a steam car. There are extra long heavy springs with jackstays on the sides of the body, carburetor non-adjusting, starts and runs on the magneto, has two sets of spark plugs, and taking all together is the ideal gentleman's touring car.

Charles A. Ball is a man of long experience in machinery of all kinds and his repair shop on the second floor of the Bushwick Garage is the most complete of any in Greater New York.

THE BROOKLYN EAGLE ALMANAC.

VOLUME XXII.

JANUARY, 1907.

No. 1 OF EAGLE LIBRARY

THE BROOKLYN DAILY EAGLE.

“ONWARD” is the watchword of to-day. And onward has been the course of the EAGLE throughout all of 1906. From the material point of view the year has been the most successful in its history. Its circulation has largely increased. Its advertising has been greater in volume than ever before. Its news service has been increased and improved, not the least improvement being the direct European cable service of the London Standard, bringing to EAGLE readers the latest and most important foreign news. Some of the EAGLE enterprises for 1906 proved to be highly popular with the public. The Post-card series, begun early in the year, has grown in favor with each successive weekly issue. The Children's Outings, given by the EAGLE to the members of the Brooklyn Eagle Humane Club, afforded a day of pleasure to a total of about 3,000 children. The EAGLE's new building at Gates Avenue and Broadway, for the use of the Gates Avenue Branch, will be a distinct addition to that busy corner.

For 1907 the EAGLE looks forward to even greater progress.

THE EAGLE'S LIGHT AND POWER SUPPLY.

ALL the artificial light used in the Eagle Building, and the power to run their entire equipment of machinery, including elevators, linotypes and printing presses, is electric, and is supplied by the Edison Electric Illuminating Company, of Brooklyn.

Prior to the opening of the enlarged Eagle Building, in 1904, the machinery had been operated by steam. Then it was decided that for both the old and new plant electric power would be far more convenient and effective and the change was determined upon. The original plans contemplated the generation of the necessary current by engines and dynamos on the premises, but a further and complete investigation prior to the purchase of dynamos, convinced the Eagle that to secure driving energy from Edison mains would be a more advantageous and economical method of operation. Accordingly they entered into a five years' contract with the Edison Company for their exclusive lighting and power service, changed their elevators over from hydraulic to electric, and equipped all their type-setting, printing, stereotyping and book binding machinery with direct connected electric motors, eliminating steam absolutely, except during the winter months, when it is used at low pressure for heating only.

The controlling reason that governed the Eagle in the making of this contract was economy, the management having become thoroughly convinced that they could buy their current supply from the Edison Company cheaper than it was possible to generate it in a plant of their own; but the absolute reliability of the Edison service was also a determining factor, for it can be readily appreciated that in the case of a daily newspaper, whose time of going to press is calculated to a nicety in order to make close connections with an extensive delivery system, any sudden failure or cessation of power, even for a few minutes, would be a very serious contingency, to be most carefully and zealously guarded against.

HOME LIFE

has reached the highest degree of enjoyment, pleasure and perfection in Flatbush.

Probably no other feature has attracted so many people as the delightful home and social life exemplified in this great home center.

No section of the city has now, or will have in years to come, better transit facilities to and from office and home. The Brighton Beach Road, with its 4-track elevated and subway service, makes the time in about twenty minutes.

The churches in Flatbush embrace every denomination and are easily reached by various surface lines of cars.

The schools are convenient and numerous. The public school buildings are new, large, light and airy and built to conform with the very latest and scientific sanitary requirements. A large number of private schools have recently been established and they are of the highest character.

So when you buy lots for a home, buy in this locality, where surroundings are congenial, churches, schools and shops the best and transportation the quickest in the city.

We have some beautifully located lots on both sides of Ocean Avenue, near the Brighton Beach station—ideal lots for home building, or for investment, which we are selling on very easy payments—10% down and monthly installments; or we can sell for a less price, lots for cash. Values are constantly increasing in Flatbush and you can always be assured of a handsome profit if you wish to sell.

Let us talk to you about it.

MARS NEAREST THE EARTH.

The planet MARS will attract the attention of the world this year because of the fact that he will approach nearer to us than he has been within the past fifteen years, or will be again in the following fifteen years. The reason for this will be understood by an inspection of the annexed figure. When the points C (Aphelion) in the Earth's orbit, and A (Perihelion) in Mars' orbit, come in line with the Sun, then the Earth and Mars will be the nearest possible. A moderately close approach to these conditions occurs every fifteen years. This year on July 12th, these planets will occupy the positions in their respective orbits E and F. On July 5th, the Earth will be at C, or farthest from the Sun, and on Sept. 26th, Mars will be at A, or nearest to the Sun. It is apparent that there must be a point between A and C where these bodies are in line with the Sun, and where they will be nearest, and as has been said, this occurs at E and F.

A Transit of the planet MERCURY over the Sun's disk, Nov. 14th, partially visible in the U. S., the Sun rising with Mercury on its disk. In observing this transit, smoked or colored glass should always be used, otherwise serious injury to the eye is apt to follow. Look for the planet well to N. of the Sun's center, and the planet will be seen moving across from W. to E., passing off at 8.45 A. M., Washington Mean Time.

THE RITUALISTIC CALENDAR.

The Ritualistic calendar changes each year. In general the following is the order in which colors are used on the altar in Ritualistic churches in the U. S.: White, from Christmas Day to the Octave of the Epiphany and from the first service on Easter Day to the Vigil of Pentecost, except red on the days commemorative of martyred saints. It is also used on Trinity Sunday, the conversion of St. Paul, the Annunciation, the feast of St. John the Baptist, St. Michael, St. Luke, All Saints, and on days commemorative of saints who are not martyrs.

Red, from the first Vespers of Pentecost to the first Vespers of Trinity Sunday; on the Day of Holy Innocents, if on a Sunday, and on feasts of all martyred saints.

Violet, from Septuagesima to Easter Eve (Maundy Thursday); from Advent Sunday, the beginning of the Church Year, until Christmas Eve; on Ember days, except in Whitsun week, on Rogation Days, and on Holy Innocents, if on a Sunday.

Black, on Good Friday and at funerals.

Green is prescribed for all other days.

HIGH WATER AT NEW YORK (GOVERNOR'S ISLAND).

The high water tables are from the book prepared and published by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey at Washington. 0h. 00m. is midnight, and 12h. 00m. is noon. To change Eastern Standard Time to New York "Local Time," add 4 minutes. Eastern Standard Time is 5 hours slower than Greenwich Time. The height is reckoned at Governor's Island from level of average low water. All hours less than 12 are in the forenoon (a. m.), all greater are in the afternoon (p. m.), and when diminished by 12 give the times after noon; for instance, 15.47 is 3.47 p. m. ☉, new moon; ☽, 1st. quarter; ☾, full moon; ♄, ♀, ♁, ♃, ♅, moon on equator; ♄, ♀, ♁, ♃, ♅, moon farthest north or south of equator; A, F, moon in apogee or perigee.

WEATHER AND TEMPERATURE FLAGS.

NOTE.—The display of weather and temperature flags, with the exception of the cold-wave flag, is now confined to rural districts and towns of 5,000 or less inhabitants; the display has been discontinued in places of greater population. The cold-wave flag will be displayed as heretofore.

When No. 4 is placed above Nos. 1, 2, or 3, it indicates warmer; when below, colder; when not displayed, temperature is expected to remain about stationary. The cold-wave flag is displayed when an unusual fall in temperature and to near or below freezing, is anticipated. During the late spring and early fall the cold-wave flag is used to indicate anticipated frosts. When No. 5 is displayed, No. 4 is omitted. When displayed on poles, the signals should be arranged to read downward; when displayed from horizontal supports, a small streamer should be attached to indicate the point from which the signals are to be read.

Storm and Hurricane Warnings.

BOROUGH OF BRONX STREET AND AVENUE DIRECTORY.

SPECIALLY COMPILED FOR THE EAGLE ALMANAC BY TROW DIRECTORY, PRINTING AND BOOKBINDING CO.

The following resolution, adopted by the Board of Aldermen March 21, 1893, and approved by the Mayor March 23, 1893, will explain the plan of numbering the streets north of Harlem River: That Willis Avenue be numbered, commencing at the Harlem River, and that said numbering run continuously through Willis, Melrose and Webster avenues. That all other avenues in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards, having a generally northerly and southerly direction, be given the same number at the cross streets nearest their southern terminus as that on Willis, Melrose, and Webster avenues at the intersection of said cross street, and then numbered accordingly.

The prefix West is given to all cross streets in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards lying west of Jerome av., which runs from Harlem River at Macomb's Dam Bridge to City line, and that the prefix East is given to all cross streets lying east of said avenue and the Harlem River.

The letters following names indicate position of the thoroughfare on the Almanac maps. Where there are no letters, the streets are in the annexed district, shown on the sixth page of the sectional maps.

COAL WEIGHING STATIONS.

The following scales have been designated by the Mayor as weighing stations for coal and coal vehicles under the provisions of Chap. 174 of the Laws of 1897: Under this law every purchaser of coal in New York City has the legal right to send any load of coal so purchased to any of the following scales to be weighed, provided that the scales shall be no more than one-half mile distant from the place of loading or the place of delivery.

The weighmaster is entitled to a fee of 15 cents a ton, which must be paid by the purchaser. After the loaded vehicle is weighed and the coal delivered to the purchaser, the driver must take the empty vehicle back to the scale to be weighed, and the weighmaster will then send a certificate.

PARKS, DRIVES AND STATUES.

Brooklyn.

The Park system of Brooklyn and Queens consists of 48 parks, with area of 1,663½ acres, 13 small gore parks, 4 playgrounds and 20 parkways with total mileage of 44½ miles. Park Department offices, Litchfield Mansion, Prospect Park, Brooklyn. For officers and employees see City Government chapter.

Commissioners to lay out a Park system were appointed in 1835. In 1838 Washington, Tompkins and City Parks were acquired. In 1845 by act of the Legislature, Washington Park reverted to the original owner. Fort Greene Park was acquired in 1847, Prospect Park in 1859. Development begun July 1, 1866, and completed in Oct. 1867. Its design and construction was carried on by Messrs. Olmsted, Vaux & Co. The land cost $3,919,370; construction about $5,000,000. Attractive features are its natural beauty, the great variety of its woodland, its botanical gardens, menagerie, the Lulliwod bridge over the lake, a large lake with numerous boats, about 200 tennis courts and croquet grounds. The Parade Grounds of about 40 acres, on southerly side, is the exclusive resort of baseball, cricket and polo players.

The Palm House is located at the Greenhouses, 7th st. and 9th av. (Prospect Park West), and is one of the most beautiful sights of the Park.

PARK STATUARY.

The statuary of Prospect Park includes the bronze figure of J. S. T. Stranahan, bronze busts of John Howard Payne, Thomas Moore, Washington Irving, Beethoven and Mozart. In Aug., 1886, a shaft was erected on the slope of Lookout Hill to the memory of the four hundred Maryland soldiers who defended the rear of the American Army upon its retreat after the Battle of Long Island. It was erected by the Baltimore Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, in conjunction with the Park Department.

The bronze statue of Major-Gen. Gouverneur Kemble Warren, near Memorial Arch, in the Park Plaza, was unveiled on July 4, 1896. The bronze statue of Abraham Lincoln, dedicated Oct. 21, 1869, is placed in the front part of the Flower Garden, overlooking the lake. It was paid for by popular subscription.

The bust of Mozart, in the Flower Garden, was unveiled Oct. 23, 1897. It is the gift of the "United Singers of Brooklyn" to the city, and was won by them as a prize in a saengerfest held in Philadelphia.

Immediately fronting the Park is the Plaza, surrounded with mounds covered with pines and attractive shrubbery. In the center is an immense electric fountain, built in 1897. South of the fountain and facing the main entrance to Prospect Park is the Soldiers and Sailors' Memorial Arch, erected to the memory of the soldiers and sailors who lost their lives in the war of the Union. The bas reliefs were prepared by Maurice J. Power, and show Lincoln and Grant on horseback, reviewing the army after the fall of Richmond. The arch in 1898 was further adorned by a bronze group on top, called the Quadriga, designed by Frederick MacMonnies; in 1900, two massive groups, one representing the Army and the other the Navy, for the sides.

At Gate 3, on the 9th av. side of Prospect Park, are two bronze panthers on pedestals. At Gate 4, at the Ocean Parkway entrance, are two specimens of bronze work in the shape of an athlete taming wild horses.

OTHER STATUES.

Other statues are scattered throughout the Borough. The Grant statue on Bedford av., near Dean st., was unveiled April 25, 1896, the gift of the Union League Club to the city.

A statue of Henry Ward Beecher stands in the center of the park in front of the Borough Hall.

A statue of Alexander Hamilton graces the entrance to the Hamilton Club, Clinton and Remsen sts.

A statue of Gen. Fowler, a commander of the old 14th Regt., stands in Fort Greene Park.

Skene monument, erected Jan., 1906, on a triangle at the north of Prospect Park Plaza. The monument, a shaft of white marble, 13 feet high, 8 feet thick, surmounted by a bronze bust, three times life size, done by J. Massey Rhind, Bklyn.; cost $5,000.

The equestrian statue of Gen. Henry W. Slocom, a commander of the old 14th Regt., designed by MacMonnies, heroic size, costing $30,000, was unveiled May 30, 1905, at Bedford av. and Eastern parkway, President Roosevelt making an address.

Washington—An equestrian statue of Gen. George Washington, in the Plaza of the Williamsburg Bridge. Donated to the city by ex-Register James R. Howe, at a cost of $50,000. Henry Merwin Shrady, sculptor. Unveiled Sept. 29, 1906.

THE SHORE DRIVE.

Two arches connecting Shore Drive with 4th av. were completed in 1901, one under 2d av., the other under 3d av. The macadam road under arches connects the Shore Road with 4th av. and will eventually be carried through to Fort Hamilton av.

Dyker Beach Park has a frontage on Gravesend Bay. The marsh in the center will be dredged and a lagoon created.

Sunset Park is on a high plateau with views of the harbor, Staten Island and a large part of Brooklyn.

Institute Park on Flatbush av., which divides it from Prospect Park and part of the original purchase of Prospect Park, has been developed into a picturesque space. An artificial lake has been made, trees and shrubs planted and hills constructed. Chap. 637, Laws of 1906, provides for an astronomical observatory, and Chap. 613, laws of 1906, provides for a botanical garden, both to be erected in Institute Park. A city appropriation of $150,000 is authorized for the observatory, if the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences raises $25,000 within six months, from May 25, 1906 and $100,000 is authorized for the botanical garden if the Institute raises $50,000 within one year, from May 24, 1906.

Seaside Park is the only property the city has on the ocean and was beautified and fully developed in 1902.

A new park will also be constructed in the Eastern District, to be called Greenpoint Park. The Board of Estimate having authorized the condemnation of a plot of land in the 14th, 15th and 17th Wards, bounded by Berry st., Nassau av., Lorimer st., Driggs av., Manhattan av., Leonard st., Bayard st., Union av. and North 12th st., comprising 45 acres. The value of the land is estimated at $1,769,234.

The land used for playgrounds is within the territory to be acquired for the park, having been bought at private purchase.

PUBLIC GOLF LINKS.

Public Golf Links are located at Forest Park, on Myrtle av., Jamaica and Woodhaven avs.

PROJECTED PARKS.

The following new parks are in process of construction:

Fulton Park at Fulton st., Chauncey st., Lewis av. and Stuyvesant av.

Plaza at Willink entrance to Prospect Park, bounded by Washington av., Malbone st., Flatbush av. and Institute Park, as an addition to Institute Park.

McLaughlin Park, bounded by Bridge st., Tillary st. and Jay st.

Park lying along East River, between Barclay st. and the Bulkhead line of the East River, from Hoyt to Ditmars ave, First Ward.

BROOKLYN FOREST.

Brooklyn Forest is a natural woodland park, extending from the boundary of Highland Park as far as Richmond Hill, in Queens. It cost about $1,150,000. From its high points are obtained views of the Atlantic Ocean, Jamaica Bay and Long Island Sound. Roads have been made through and the main road is macadamized. The park drive leads into fine macadam roads connecting with Astoria, Flushing, the military reservation at Creedmoor, Whitestone, Queens and the north side of Long Island.

Highland Park, separated from Forest Park by cemetery property, adjoins the city reservoir. It contains many high eminences, and is a great pleasure ground for the East New York section.

Manhattan and Richmond Parks.

Office, Arsenal Bldg., Central Park.

MANHATTAN.

Bowling Green—The first park space in Manhattan was that now called Bowling Green Park. In 1732 this plot was leased by citizens for playing the game of bowls. In 1786 it was first laid out as a park.

City Hall Park constitutes a part of what was known in 17th century as "The Common Lands." At the close of the Revolutionary War improvements were begun. The city hall cornerstone was laid in 1803 and building used for the first time in 1811.

Madison Sq. Park was laid out as a Potters Field in 1794. The U. S. Govt. erected there an arsenal in 1806. Plans for improving the park were adopted in 1870.

Union Sq. Park was laid out in 1815 and enlarged in 1832, and plans for its improvement adopted in 1870.

Washington Sq. Park—In 1797 Potters Field was removed from Madison Sq. to Washington Sq. Park, later known as Washington Parade Ground. Plans for its improvement were adopted in 1870; carried out in 1871.

Tompkins Sq. Park was a parade ground in 1866. It was paved with concrete, but has been remodeled and laid out as a park.

Central Park—By the passage of an act by the Legislature in 1853 the ground known as Central Park was selected for a public park. Five commissioners were appointed by the Supreme Court to take the land and their report was confirmed in 1856. The first Commissioners of Central Park were Robt. J. Dillon, Jas. E. Cooley, Chas. H. Russell, John F. Butterworth, John A. C. Gray, Waldo Hutchins, Thomas E. Field, Andrew H. Green, Charles W. Elliott, William K. Strong and James Hogg. Of the persons above named there is not a representative living. Thirty-three designs for improving the park were submitted in competitive contest and that selected was by Frederick Law Olmsted and Calvert Vaux. The actual work of improvement was begun in 1858 under supervision of Mr. Olmsted, Mr. Vaux and J. W. Mould. Some portions of the park were acquired by private sale, others taken by the city under the charters of 1836 and 1730 were already city property. The Arsenal Building and grounds were secured by grant from the State. The original park extended from 5th av. to 8th av. and from 59th st. to 106th st. The extension to 110th st. was authorized by laws of 1859 and acquired in 1863. Central Park is  $\frac{2}{3}$  miles long and  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile and 80 feet wide. The land cost \$5,023,844.10. Construction and maintenance to date, about \$20,000,000. Its present value is estimated to be about \$200,000,000. Its drives aggregate 9,452 miles and bridle roads 5,503 miles; the walks, 31 miles. Its area is 843.019 acres. The following are some of the principal features: At 59th st. and 5th av. the Scholars' Gate, adorned by a bust of Von Humboldt, unveiled 1874. In the southwest part is the playground and carousel for children, and beyond is the common lawn of 16 acres. The Menagerie is in the southeast part, clustered around the old Arsenal Building. The mall is a broad promenade, a quarter of a mile long and 206 feet wide, bordered by double rows of elm trees and famous for the collection of statues, prominent among which are: Shakespeare, by J. Q. A. Ward, erected on the 300th anniversary of the poet's birth; Burns and Scott; the "Indian Hunter," by Ward; Fitz Greene Halleck, and a colossal Beethoven bust. Near by is the Music Pavilion. The Terrace, a sumptuous pile of richly carved masonry, and the Lake, come next in view, and the famous Bethesda fountain, designed by Emma Stebbins and made in Munich. Beyond the Lake is the Ramble, 36 acres, passing a bust of Schiller, rustic cabins, gorges and waterfalls. Farther on is the Belvedere, a tower of stone; next are the city reservoirs. On the left is the American Museum of Natural History. Admittance free, except on Mondays and Tuesdays (25c.). Open (free) Tuesday and Saturday evenings. Opposite the Obelisk and near 5th av. and 83d st. is the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Admittance free except Mondays and Fridays (25c.); Monday and Friday evenings, 8 to 10.

The greenhouses, opened 1899, cost $55,000; located 300 feet south of E. 106th st. entrance.

Riverside Park was acquired by Chap. 697, Laws of 1867, the city obtaining possession Aug., 1872. In 1876 Riverside Park and avenue were placed under control of the Park Dept. In 1891 the city acquired parcels of land west of the park. In 1900 the city secured lands north of 122d st. and in 1899 land on the west of Riverside Drive and railroad tracks, making total area about 140 acres.

Wm. H. Seward Park was opened to the public Oct. 17, 1903. This is the first park in Greater New York planned especially for playground and gymnasium features. It contains a splendid pavilion, shower baths, toilet facilities, etc.

Small Parks—Chap. 320, Laws of 1897, gave the Board of Street Openings and Improvements power to select and locate parks south of 155th st., and the following parks were acquired: De Witt Clinton, cost $1,272,335; Mulberry Bend, $1,522,055.60; Hudson, $533,765.04; park at Worth and Baxter sts., $184,724.67; Washington-Lafayette, $47,000; East River Park Extension, $522,118.38; Hamilton Fish, $1,719,465; Thomas Jefferson, $2,748,122.50; Colonial, $1,473,071.62; Wm. H. Seward, $1,811,127; Corlears Hook, $1,370,421.

Playgrounds during the summer are also maintained in Corlears Hook, Hamilton Fish, Tompkins Square, DeWitt Clinton, Hudson and Battery Parks.

In DeWitt Clinton Park a children's farm garden was maintained during the summer of 1904 and vegetables were grown to maturity by the young farmers. The results obtained were very gratifying and the experiment has attracted a great deal of attention all over the country, and the department has received many letters commending the work.

The Bronx Parks.

Twenty-two years ago there were no parks in The Bronx. April 19, 1883, the Legislature passed an act empowering the Mayor of New York to appoint a commission of seven citizens to select lands in the 23d and 24th Wards. This commission was appointed prior to May 1, 1883, confirmed by the Board of Aldermen May 1. The commission made its report to the Legislature in 1884. The authorities then proceeded to take title to the lands embraced in the report, which included Bronx, Crotona, Claremont, Pelham Bay, St. Mary's, Van Cortlandt Parks; Crotona, Mosholu, Bronx and Pelham Parkways, and fee vested in the city Dec. 12, 1888.

Van Cortlandt Park—Second in size in the borough, accessible by the N. Y. & Northern R. R. and several trolley lines running through Jerome av. and the Kingsbridge trolley. This tract was disputable ground during the Revolutionary War. The manorial residence of the Van Cortlandts was erected 1748 and was occupied by Washington and his staff twice during the war. The old saw mill, recently removed, was used by both armies in cutting logs for building bridges, roads, etc. Vault Hill is the burial place of the Van Cortlandt family. The parade ground is the finest in the State consisting of 160 acres. Van Cortlandt Lake comprises 25 acres. The parade grounds have been opened to polo teams of Squadron A of the National Guard. The colonial mansion in front of the parade grounds has been turned over to the care of the Colonial Dames, and is used by them as a museum of Revolutionary relics. There are also tennis courts, cricket fields, base ball diamonds and two 18-hole golf courses covering a lineal area of 5 miles. The statue of General Porter was unveiled in this park in 1902. A cairn was erected in the Indian Field to commemorate a battle in which the Stockbridge Indians helped the American forces during the Revolutionary War. A drinking fountain was erected near the Van Cortlandt station as a memorial of Algernon Sidney Sullivan.

Bronx Park derives its name from Jonas Bronck, who purchased the land from the Indians about 1639. The Bronx River runs through it, containing several falls and cascades. The Park is divided into three sections: the northerly section has been set apart as a Botanical Garden, under the jurisdiction of the New York Botanical Society; the southerly end is used as a Zoological Park, by the New York Zoological Society, and the central part, about 150 acres, under the jurisdiction of the Park Dept. The southeasterly section of the park, comprising 261 acres, is in charge of the Zoological Society. The plan comprises 55 different series of buildings, cages and ranges. Admission free, except on Mondays and Thursdays (25c.). The president of the society is Levi P. Morton; director, Wm. P. Hornaday. Bronx Park is reached by the 3d av. elevated to 161st st., with transfer to West Farms; to 177th st., with transfer to Tremont av. trolley as far as Southern Boulevard, to 177th st., with transfer to 3d av. as far as Fordham. The last route is to the northwest entrance. The Bonnal Garden cost over $1,000,000, contains about 250 acres, and is free to the public.

Pelham Bay Park, with its coastal indentations, its picturesque bays and inlets and open water front, is one of the most beautiful in the world. It contains large tracts of woodland trees that are centuries old. This park is being developed by carriage roads and foot paths, has a fine new athletic and parade ground covering 120 acres, and an 18-hole golf course.

Crotona Park is being improved and a fine athletic field has been laid out in it, containing ball diamonds, tennis courts, etc.

Claremont Park lies on high ground, with an elevation of 100 feet in places. It is fully developed, with many tennis courts and base ball diamonds. It contains the old Zbrowski mansion, now used for offices of the Park Dept.; acquired in 1888.

St. Mary's Park was formerly a portion of the estate of Gouverneur Morris, a prominent delegate to the convention which framed the Constitution of the United States. A large portion of the park is very high, commanding fine views of the East River, L. I. Sound, Harlem and Hudson Rivers. Acquired in 1888.

Franz Sigel Park is the new name for Cedar Park. It lies on a high ridge overlooking the Harlem River. It was acquired June, 1886.

Macomb's Dam Park was acquired in 1899 and is divided into several sections by the streets. It is adjacent to the Harlem River and is the headquarters for many rowing clubs. Contains baseball diamonds and tennis courts and a quarter mile running track.

THE GRAND BOULEVARD AND CONCOURSE.

The Concourse, under the jurisdiction of the Borough President of the Bronx, is designed to provide connection between Manhattan and the park systems in the northern and eastern portions of the Bronx. It was first proposed in 1892, by Louis J. Heintz, then Commissioner of Street Improvements. Louis F. Haffen, who succeeded him as commissioner, began the agitation for a grand boulevard, and the Legislature passed a law, Chapter 130, Laws of 1895, to provide for the acquisition of title to the lands necessary for the boulevard, which vested in the city on August 28, 1897. The cost of the lands acquired was $2,428,582.

In Jan., 1900, a resolution providing for the construction of the boulevard and concourse passed the Board of Public Improvements and the Municipal Assembly, and was approved by the Mayor. The work was advertised to be let in Dec., 1901, but owing to an injunction obtained on the ground of some alleged irregularity in the proceedings, the bids for the work were not received. In Jan., 1902, when Mr. Haffen assumed office as President of the Borough, at the request of the city administration, the work was reauthorized by the Local Board of Morristania on June 30, 1902, by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment on July 8, 1902, by the Board of Aldermen on July 21, 1902, and was approved by the Mayor July 21, 1902. The estimated cost of the work of construction was $1,062,153. The contract was let Aug. 20, 1902, the lowest bid being $1,011,322.50. The ground was broken for the work by President Haffen on Oct. 2, 1902, at the junction of Morris av. and 175th st. The time estimated for its construction is 1,000 working days.

The route of the concourse is from E. 161st st., at Mott av., along the ridge lying between Jerome and Webster av., thence at a width of 152 feet north to Moshulu parkway. Its total length is 4½ miles. It will have a central driveway for fast driving 56 feet in width, a macadamized driveway on each side 24 feet in width for general traffic and access to abutting property. There will be 20 feet sidewalks on each side, and between the central and side driveways bicycle paths will be constructed. The spaces between the driveways and the paths will be planted with trees and sodded. The present contract does not provide for the construction of transverse roads, of which there are nine. These are to be constructed at some future time. These transverse roads are intended to cross underneath the concourse, so as not to obstruct the central drive, and will probably cost in the neighborhood of a million dollars. On the southerly end will be an elevated approach from 155th st. or Central Bridge. The land has been acquired for this structure, and the cost of this structure will be about $500,000.

would include the reservation of the Huckleberry Indians on Travers Island, a tribe of uncertain number. The state census of 1875 indicates reservations in Madison, Oneida and Suffolk counties, now disused. The Oneidas, numbering 141, hold their lands (400 acres) in severalty. The Shinnecock reservation of 400 acres, near Southampton, carries a population of 150, in which few Indian traces are discernible. The total Indian population of the state is about 5,000.

There are three official burying grounds of the unknown dead in New York City. They are: Flatbush, Hart's Island and Silver Lake, Richmond. It is estimated that 4,000 bodies are buried annually in these cemeteries.

America's Colonial Trade.

The United States did a business of $119,304,511 with its outlying possessions during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1906. Alaska contributed $3,208,130 in domestic shipments, a reduction of $1,490,564, due to the decrease of canned salmon. Alaska purchased from the States $14,375,275 of domestic merchandise, an increase of $3,147,656 over 1905.

Hawaiian domestic imports from the States held about even at $11,771,155, but the raw sugar shipments in return fell off 99,000,000 pounds from the $11,000,000 for 1905, so that the goods invoiced from Hawaii to the States amounted to only $28,350,463 against $38,069,109 the year previous.

Porto Rico's trade with the States was $18,648,991 in purchases and $19,055,474 in shipments. The Philippines bought $5,458,867 worth of domestic merchandise and shipped hither $12,357,927.

Commissioner of Jurors and Special Jurors.

Chap. 564, Laws of 1902, provides for the appointment of a commissioner of jurors and for a special jury in civil and criminal actions tried in Kings Co.

The Commissioner of Jurors shall select from persons qualified to serve as trial jurors in such county such number of special jurors as the justices of the Appellate Div. of the Supreme Court, or a majority of them, of the dept. in which such county is situated, shall from time to time direct.

Special jurors can now be had in civil and criminal cases. The District Attorney or the defendant, if in a criminal action, or either party in a civil action, may apply for a special jury. Application must be made at any term of the Supreme Court held within the county where such issue is triable or at a regular term of the court in which such issue is to be tried. Where, upon such application it appears to the court that by reason of the importance or intricacy of the case a special jury is required, or that the subject matter of the indictment or the issue to be tried has been so widely commented upon that the court is satisfied that an ordinary jury cannot, without delay and difficulty, be obtained to try such issue, or that for any other reason the impartial administration of justice in the particular case would be advanced by the trial of such issue by a special jury, the court direct that such trial be had by a special jury, and trial shall be had accordingly. The order must specify the time when the drawing of the special jury shall take place, and the number of special jurors to be then drawn, the term of the court and the particular day in the term when such special jury must attend. At the time specified in the order the special jury shall be drawn at the office of the Commissioner of Jurors by the Commissioner or his deputy, and a judge or justice of a court of record residing in the department in which such special jury is to be drawn. A minute of the drawing must be kept by Commissioner of Jurors or his deputy, which must be entitled in the action in which the jury is to serve, specifying the term of court and particular day in the term when special jurors drawn must attend; there must be entered thereon the name of each juror drawn. This minute must be signed by the judge or justice and by the Commissioner of Jurors or his deputy, present at the drawing, and such minute so signed must be filed in office of the County Clerk of the said county. The object of the law is to get a competent class of jurors for cases demanding such.

By Chap. 600, Laws of 1901, the Justices of the Supreme Court residing in Kings Co., or a majority of them, may require the Commissioner of Jurors to scrutinize and revise the general panel or list of trial jurors for the county under their supervision and direction. For that purpose the Commissioner of Jurors has power to summon before him by subpoena each and every person on the same general panel or list for the year and in each year, and make inquiries and examine him as to his competency and qualifications to serve as a trial juror, with power to reject and take off the said general panel or list such persons as are not competent or qualified, or are not to be found. If the person so summoned fails to attend except for physical disability, or if he refuse to be sworn or answer any pertinent question by said Commissioner of Jurors, he may be punished therefor by any trial justice of the Supreme Court sitting in such county. Every person so summoned must present any exemption from jury service which he has or claims, and if he fails to do so he shall be deemed to have waived the same and cannot be excused therefor thereafter except by a court or judge, except for infancy, alienage, bad character, lack of ordinary intelligence and inability to read and write the English language understandingly.

GRAND JURORS IN KINGS COUNTY.

Chap. 257, Laws 1904, provides that the Commissioner of Jurors in Kings Co. shall annually on the third Monday of June and as often as required, submit the list of all persons duly qualified to act as jurors and not exempt by law to a board consisting of the Justices of the Supreme Court of this 2d Judicial Dist., residents in Kings Co., and the County Judges of the County Court of Kings Co. The Commissioner of Jurors of Kings Co. shall act as Secretary of said board, and said board shall within five days after first meeting select from the list provided as aforesaid a list of names not less than 600, nor more than 1,000 persons, to serve as grand jurors for said county, until the next list shall be prepared. Said board shall have power to fill any vacancies in the list of grand jurors, or to add such number of names thereto as will make up the full complement of 1,000 grand jurors. The list so made out shall be signed by the chairman of the board and certified by the secretary of the board and filed in the office of the County Clerk and a copy thereof filed in the office of the Commissioner of Jurors within ten days after said first meeting.

Russia has 109,375 miles of telegraph lines, France 93,750 miles, Germany 83,750 miles, Great Britain 49,375 miles. In number of telegrams Great Britain sends twice as many as either Germany or France.

THE WATER FRONT.

The water frontage of Brooklyn, Manhattan, Queens, Richmond and the Bronx—less the small islands—measures 341.22 lineal miles.

Brooklyn.

Newtown Creek, navigable for three miles, is included. From the mouth of Newtown Cr. southward to Main st., along the East R. frontage are located several of the largest sugar refineries in the world, a recreation pier, extensive establishments for almost every class of industry, the piers of the Williamsburg bridge, Wallabout market shipping basin, the freight terminals of the D., L. & W. and the Pa. R. R. Cos., and the water approach to the N. Y. Navy Yard. At Main st. is a ferry to Catharine st. Mtn. Between Main and Fulton sts are piers 1 to 3 and buildings thereon of the N. Y. Dock Co. At Fulton st. are the eastern piers of the Brooklyn Bridge, and ferries to Mtn. and Jersey City. From Fulton to Montague sts. are wharves and buildings of the N. Y. Dock Co. At Montague st. is the ferry to Wall st., Mtn. Foot of Atlantic av. is the landing of the South ferry to Mtn. Adjoining Hamilton av. is the Atlantic Basin, under control of N. Y. Dock Co. The largest vessel can enter it in any stage of tide. It covers an area of 40 acres, has brick and granite warehouses fronting on bulkhead wharfage, 6 covered piers, 2 of which, Nos. 33 and 38, form the basin. Pier No. 33 is 1,250 ft. long by 166 ft. wide, and Pier No. 38, 880 ft. long by 166 ft. wide. Railroad tracks traverse both sides of these piers for the loading and unloading of cars with inward or outward bound freight on ocean going vessels. Nine great steamships may be handled at these piers at the same time. Three of the inside piers are 700, 800 and 900 ft. in length, respectively, by 76 and 85 ft. in width. The frontage line of bulkheads and piers of this basin measures three miles. Its entrance is 200 ft. wide. Beside other vessels, the steamships of N. Y. and Porto Rico S. S. Co., Lampert & Holt S. S. Line, Ward Line to Cuba and Mexico, Booth S. S. Co., Red Cross Line, Red "D." line, Anchor Line, Barber & Co., and Norton & Son Line, find accommodation in this basin and at the other wharves of the N. Y. Dock Co., which extend to Conover st., Bet. Ferris and Conover sts. are the shipyard, balance and railway dry docks of Devine & Burtis.

Grain Elevators—New York is one of the largest grain handling ports in the world. The Brooklyn grain elevators have recently been greatly reduced in number. There remain on the properties of the N. Y. Dock Co. only those in the Columbia and Dows stores and in stores Nos. 207 to 214 and 236 to 244, Atlantic Basin, each of which is of large capacity of storage and transfer. Floating elevators are now much used.

The Erie Basin covers 161 acres and is protected by a mile of breakwater. It contains 2 large covered piers and 8 smaller open piers, stores for grain having capacity of over 3,000,000 bu., 2 elevators of 2,750,000 bu. aggregate storage, and 8,000 bu. per hour transfer capacity. At the Beard stores, 3 other elevators of smaller capacity, and stores for general merchandise. Of the latter, two are the only warehouses in the city for the storage of nitrate of soda, chloride of potash, saltpeter and similar substances. In the basin are received the great ocean rafts of timber, as well as sawed lumber. 500 to 700 canal boats seek winter protection in this basin, the crews and families of which form a colony of over 2,000 persons.

The dry docks here are among the largest in the U. S. The chamber of No. 1 dock is 510 ft. in length, 112 ft. wide at the top and 50 ft. at bottom. No. 2 is 610 ft. long, 124 ft. wide at top and 66 ft. at bottom. Most of the iron ships that require docking at this port are hauled upon these docks. There are also 3 floating dry docks, with capacities for vessels of 5,00, 4,000 and 2,000 tons, respectively; Wm. Gofkey & Sons' shipyard, with 2 sectional and 1 balance floating dry docks; Thos. A. Crane's Sons' shipyard and balance dry docks at breakwater gap. The Columbia Eng. Works, possessing a sectional dry docks for vessels of 6,000 to 7,000 tons; Manning's yacht agency, which cares for several hundreds of yachts, and Wm. H. Beard's Co., for all classes of dredging.

At the foot of Court and Clinton are the shipyards of C. & R. Poillon, remarkable for yacht and pilot boat building.

The marine railways of Downing & Lawrence, Tyler, Payne & Reddell shipyard, Kirkham's docks and the establishments of various other vessel building firms are stretched along the shore to 23th. Land bet. 23th and 28th 2d and 3d av., now belongs to Bush Ind. Docks and Stores Co. Land and water front west of 2d av., bet. 36th and 38th, is taken by the city authorities for the purposes of a public market. The north half of the block bet. 38th and 39th is property of the B. R. T. R. Co. The south half is the approach of the 39th st. ferry to Mtn. From 39th to 53d, with the exception of the block bet. 51st and 52d, secured by the State for the armory of the Naval Reserve Corps, all belongs to the Bush Co. 52d to 53d is southern power plant of the B. R. T. R. Co. E. W. Bliss & Co. Projectile Co., Kings Co. Lighting Co., Morse Dry Dock Co., Bay Ridge Yacht Basin and other interests succeed to 63d. 63d to 65th is being prepared as a terminal on N. Y. Bay for the L. I. R. R. From 65th to the Narrows the high bluff of Bay Ridge overlooks the Bay of N. Y. Along the shore at the foot of the bluff from 66th around on to Gravesend Bay runs the recently completed Bay Ridge Parkway. A new dock has been completed at the ft. of 69th At 84th is the country house of the Crescent Ath. Club. Outside the Narrows at the northern headland of Gravesend Bay is situated the U. S. Govt. reservation and harbor defenses of Ft. Hamilton. A joining, Dyker Heights Pk. extends to Bay 78th. From that point business or other private occupancy, suburban developments and summer pleasure resorts, among them Bath Beach and Bensonhurst, on Gravesend Bay; Sea Gate, W. Brighton, Brighton Beach, Mtn. Beach and Ft. Breese, on Coney Isl.; Sheepshead Bay, on the bay of that name; Bergen Beach and Canarsie, on Jamaica Bay, and Rockaway Beach, Arverne, Wave Crest, Isle of Wight and Far Rockaway take up the bay and ocean shore to the extreme eastern limit of N. Y. City, from which point to the western shore of Staten Island the width of the city is nearly 30 miles. Brooklyn's total water front is 33 miles.

Manhattan.*HUDSON RIVER SHORE LINE.

The frontage on the Hudson R. side of Manhattan begins with Battery Park, on which is Castle Garden, now a public aquarium. Adjoining the fire station No. 87, headquarters of the fire boats. Next northward is Pier A, occupied by the Dept. of Docks. From there northward on various piers and bulkheads are terminal facilities for the receipt and handling of freight. Also conveniences for the many thousands of passengers and the freight by ferries, ocean-going steamships and river steamboats. At Barrow st., Pier 43 is arranged for recreation. Between Perry and Gansevoort sts. 5 new piers are leased to foreign steamship companies. The largest of the Manhattan markets—West Washington—is at Gansevoort and W. 12th sts.

At the Chelsea Improvement between Bloomfield and W. 23d sts 9 new piers are completed and leased to steamship companies. The construction of the steel freight sheds which are to be erected on the same is about to be contracted for. At W. 23d and 24th sts. are many of the ferries connecting the railroad terminals on the New Jersey shore with the uptown West Side of Manhattan. From W. 25th to W. 38th st. the frontage is occupied by freight depots of the N. Y. Cent., W. Shore, O. and West, and Ponna. railroads. The piers and bulkheads from there northward are occupied by corporate and individual interests to W. 59th st. Between W. 59th and W. 72d sts. is another freight terminal of the N. Y. Cent. R. R. At W. 51st and W. 129th sts. are recreation piers. Between W. 153d and W. 158th sts. are Trinity Cemetery and Audubon Park. Ft. Washington and Ft. Washington Park are between W. 170th and W. 185th st. At W. 219th st. is the mouth of the Spuyten Duyvil Cr. and the Harlem Ship Canal, which connects the Hudson and Harlem rivers. Beyond Mt. St. Vincent, 15 miles from the City Hall, is the northern limit of the city. From this point to the southern extremity of Staten Island, the air line length of Greater New York, from north to south, is upward of 35 miles.

EAST RIVER SHORE LINE.

At the southeast corner of Battery Park is located the ferry to Liberty Isl, the Barge office, a department of the customs, a bureau of immigration, office of the U. S. Marine Hospital, ship news office and ferry to Governor's Isl. Next on the East R. are the ferries to Staten Isl. and 29th st., South Brooklyn. Adjoining are the ferries to Hamilton av. and Atlantic av., South Brooklyn. From these ferry landings, freight terminals, steamship and other vessel landings take up the space to the pier next south of Wall st., which is occupied as a depot of the U. S. Quartermaster's Dept. The shore line is on South st., which is being widened 55 feet on the river side and the piers extended to the full limit authorized by recent legislation. At Wall and Fulton sts. are ferries to Bklyn. Between Fulton and Beekman sts. is the principal wholesale fish market of the city. At Roosevelt st. are the western piers of the first Brooklyn Bridge. At Pike slip are the west piers of "Manhattan" or the third East R. bridge. Corlears Hook Park is between Jackson and Corlears sts. Between Broome and Delancey sts. is the anchorage and west piers of the second bridge to Bklyn, completed in 1903. E. 26th to 28th st. is Bellevue Hospital. From E. 33d to E. 34th st. the shore front is used in small local interests. At E. 59th st. the fourth East R. or Blackwell's Isl. bridge reaches Manhattan. Between E. 84th and E. 89th sts. is East River Park to Av. B. E. 89th to E. 90th st. embraces the Roman Catholic House of the Good Shepherd. Between E. 111th and E. 115th sts. is Jefferson Park. At E. 127th st. is the outlet into the East R. of the Harlem R. Spanning the Harlem R. are draw or swing bridges; at 3d av. those of the N. Y. and Harlem and N. Y. and Northern railroads, Washington Bridge and High Bridge, on which the Croton aqueduct crosses the Harlem R. High Bridge Park borders for a considerable distance the west side of the river. North of the eastern outlet of the Harlem R. and continuing out into the head of L. I. Sound is Pt. Morris, the freight and transfer terminal of the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. Some two miles beyond Port Morris the Bronx R., the limit of city improvements on the east side, empties into L. I. Sound. From that point to Throggs Neck the shore consists chiefly of salt marshes. At Throggs Neck is located Ft. Schuyler. Salt marshes again border much of the shore in this section, and on to Pelham Manor, the northern and eastern limits of Greater New York. From there across the Sound the city line takes its course to Long Island, reaching the land at Little Neck, on the east side of Little Neck Bay. On the western side of the bay, jutting out into the Sound and closely approaching Throggs Neck, is Willets Point, strongly fortified. Whitestone, College Point and Flushing line the shore to Flushing Bay. At Bowers Bay is an attractive summer resort called North Beach. West of Bowers Bay the villages of Steinway, Astoria and Ravenswood fill up the spaces to Long Island City, the western terminus of the L. Isl. R. R. At Harris and Vernon avs., in Ravenswood, are the L. Isl. piers of the fourth or Blackwell's Isl. East R. bridge. The Manhattan water front is 40 miles long.

Staten Island.

At St. George is established the ferry terminal of the municipal ferry between Whitehall st. Mtn. and Staten Id. Also the freight terminals of the Baltimore & Ohio R.R. Co. Adjoining is the property of the U. S. Government, appropriated to the lighthouse establishment at Tompkinsville. The next adjoining 800 feet belong to the American Docks and Trust Co. At Stapleton the Dept. of Docks and Ferries is building a second ferry landing for the municipal ferry. From Clifton, the shore to the waters of the lower bay is the property of the State of New York and the U. S., and is occupied by the quarantine boarding station and the fortifications on the west side of the Narrows. South of the Narrows is South Beach, a seaside resort. Adjoining is Midland Beach. Thence the encircling shore accommodates dental, terra cotta, ultramarine, linoleum, white lead and gypsum manufactures, steel works, ferries to New Jersey, dry docks, shipbuilding and other industries. At the northwest point of the island is the abutment of the Arthur Kill railroad bridge, which connects the States of New Jersey and New York. This bridge is free, and therefore accessible to all the trunk lines of railroads. About five miles eastward is Sailors' Snug Harbor. Between this point and St. George is New Brighton. The circuit of the island water front aggregates 51 miles.

PRIMARY LAW OF NEW YORK STATE.

The Primary Election Law was originally Chap. 179, Laws of 1898, amended by Chap. 473, Laws of 1899, and in minor detail was amended by Chaps. 304, 205, 226, 506, Laws of 1900; Chaps. 167, 360, Laws of 1901; Chap. 195, Laws of 1902; Chaps. 111 and 586, Laws of 1903; Chaps. 350 and 488, Laws of 1904; Chaps. 207, 674, Laws of 1905; Chaps. 277, 466, Laws of 1906, providing for the enrollment of members of political parties in towns in certain counties. Naturalized citizens may be required to show naturalization papers or certified copy before being registered, and date of such naturalization must be given. The general object of the law is to grant to every registered voter the right to enroll with any party he desires to affiliate with for the purpose of participating in the primaries of such party for the ensuing year. This is accomplished by furnishing, through the inspectors of election, to every person registering as a voter an envelope and secret ballot. The voter indicates his choice of parties by a cross mark in a circle above name of his party. The ballot is then inclosed in an envelope, which is sealed and indorsed by inspectors with name of voter. The sealed envelope is then deposited in a box and kept inviolate until a week after election, when all envelopes are opened and ballots examined, and the political faith expressed thereon of the voters is marked in the enrollment books opposite his name. Under the original law a time was appointed for a supplemental enrollment other than at registration, but that privilege has now been withdrawn in cities of the first and second class. One must have enrolled at time of registration to vote at a party primary in the succeeding year. The annual primary day is fixed for the seventh Tuesday before day of general election, except a presidential year, then it is fixed for the tenth Tuesday prior to election, except in counties having a city of the first class. A primary is also held in March in a presidential year for election of delegates to the National Convention. Independence in municipal elections does not deprive the voter of the right to participate in the primary of his party. In cities of the second class in 1906 the provisions of the law shall govern as to enrollment the same as before such cities became of the second class. Subsequently enrollment shall proceed under the provisions of the primary election law.

The enrollment shall be completed before the succeeding 15th of Feb. in each year. If cross marks are found in more than one of the circles, or if no cross marks are found in any of the circles on the enrollment blank, the elector corresponding with said blanks shall not be deemed to be enrolled. Under the law a majority of voters of any party can control the nominations if they so desire by making nominations direct at the primary instead of by electing delegates. A political party is defined to be an organization which polled at least 10,000 votes at last election of Governor. The custodians of primary records are officers or boards providing official ballots at general elections, viz., county clerks and the Board of Police in N. Y. City. Unofficial primaries may be held at any time by the political parties at their own expense, but notice of same must be published the same as for the official primary and the election.

This act does not apply except in cities and villages having 5,000 or more inhabitants, unless the committee in such city or village elects to have it apply.

The Hudson-Fulton Celebration Commission.

On Feb. 15, 1906, by invitation of the late Hon. Robert B. Roosevelt (uncle of President Roosevelt), the representatives of various patriotic and historical societies met at his house to concert measures for the celebration in 1909 of the 300th anniversary of Henry Hudson's voyage of exploration up the river which bears his name. At the request of the committee then formed, Mayor McClellan, of New York City, and Gov. Higgins, of New York State, appointed a joint commission which formally organized in the New York City Hall, on Dec. 5, 1906, as the Hudson Ter-Centenary Joint Committee. Independently of the foregoing, at the suggestion of the New York Board of Trade and Transportation, Mayor McClellan appointed a commission of citizens to arrange for the celebration in 1907 of the centenary of the first successful steam navigation of the Hudson River by Robert Fulton's steamboat Clermont. This commission met at the City Hall and organized July 13, 1906. With a view to co-ordinating the closely related interests involved in these two celebrations, the commissions merged by mutual consent and were incorporated by a special act of the Legislature, Chapter 325 of the Laws of 1906, under the title of The Hudson-Fulton Celebration Commission. Its official headquarters are in the Tribune Building, New York, and its principal officers are as above.

The project contemplates a great naval parade on the Hudson River, including facsimiles of the Half Moon and Clermont; a land parade with historical and literary exercises; the dedication of memorials, including the Hudson Memorial Bridge across Spuyten Duyvil Creek; a municipal park and memorial structure on Inwood Hill, and a State Park at Verplanck's Point, with possibly some sort of permanent exposition. The celebration will probably take place during the week beginning Monday, Sept. 20, 1907.

FISH, GAME AND FOREST LAWS OF NEW YORK.

The laws for the protection, preservation and propagation of birds, fish and wild animals in the State were codified and re-enacted by the Legislature in 1892, amended in 1893 and 1894, revised and re-enacted and consolidated with the forest laws in 1895, and further amended in the succeeding years. They constitute chap. 31 of general laws. They are also known as chap. 20 of the laws of 1900, as amended by the Legislature each year since.

A law makes catching and killing beaver a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $100; the taking, killing or exposing for sale of all land turtles, or tortoises, including the box turtle and the wood turtle, a misdemeanor punishable by a fine or $10.

An important law says that any person owning land which he reserves as private fishing premises, if stocked by the State at any time since April 17, 1896, from any of the hatcheries, hatching stations, or by fish furnished at expense of the State, shall remain open to the public to fish therein.

Another law states that: No trout of any kind, salmon trout or land locked salmon shall be taken away from waters of this State to stock a private pond or stream.

The law in its application to fresh water also provides for the licensing of nets. If nets are licensed and have a tag on the protectors and foresters can identify owner of net illegally used, and if the tag is missing the net can be destroyed.

The law prohibits the polluting of streams or taking fish by drawing off water or by dynamite, or from a stream to stock a private pond or stream. No fishing through the ice in waters inhabited by trout or lake trout, except Lake Ontario and Erie, during the closed season for trout.

FISH, GAME AND FOREST LAWS OF NEW YORK—Continued.

Forest Law.

All the wild or forest land now owned or hereafter acquired in the counties of St. Lawrence, Franklin, Clinton, Essex, Warren, Washington, Hamilton, Herkimer, Oneida, Lewis, Greene, Ulster, Sullivan and Delaware, Fulton and Saratoga, constitute the Forest Preserve, and cannot be sold or leased nor the timber disposed of.

The Adirondack Park includes all lands now owned or hereafter acquired by the State within the county of Hamilton; towns of Newcomb, Minerva, Schroon, North Hudson, Keene, North Elba, St. Armand and Wilmington, in Essex county; the towns of Harrietstown, Santa Clara, Altamont, Waverly and Brighton, in Franklin county; the towns of Webb and Wilkumt, in Herkimer county; the towns of Hopkinton, Colton, Clifton and Fine, in St. Lawrence county; the towns of Johnsburgh, Stony Creek and Thurman, and the islands in Lake George, in Warren county. Such park shall forever be reserved and maintained for the free use of all the people. Chapter 304, Laws of 1904, enlarged the boundaries of the park at certain points and decreased it also by the exclusion of farming lands along the border in certain towns. The park now includes Township 10, Franklin county, and about 8,000 acres in the northeast corner of Saratoga county.

By a law enacted by the Legislature of 1904, the State undertakes to establish a State park in the Catskill mountains. It will comprise about 675,000 acres, situated in the counties of Greene, Ulster, Sullivan and Delaware.

All that part of the river St. Lawrence within the State, with the islands and such lands along the shore as are now owned by or shall hereafter be acquired by the State, has been constituted an international park, known as the "St. Lawrence reservation."

It is a misdemeanor to cut or carry away any tree, bark or timber on the forest preserve, and in addition the person cutting any timber thereon shall forfeit $10 for every tree cut or carried away by him.

The game protectors may, without warrant, arrest any person found upon the forest preserve violating any of the laws for the protection of same.

Fire wardens, appointed, shall take necessary measures for the extinction of forest fires, and may call on any person in their districts for assistance, and a person refusing may be fined $10.

In towns outside of the forest preserve the supervisor is fire warden ex-officio, and in the absence of the supervisor and fire warden in any town any justice of the peace may act. Any person who sets fire to, or assists another person to set fire to any waste or forest lands belonging to the State or to another person, whereby such forests are injured or endangered, or who suffers any fire upon his own lands to extend beyond limits thereof, to the injury of woodlands of another or of State, is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or fine not to exceed $250, or both, and be liable to the person injured for damages.

UNITED STATES FOREST SERVICE.

"Forest Service" has been the name since July 1, 1905, of that branch of the Department of Agriculture which was previously called the "Bureau of Forestry," and, earlier still, the "Division of Forestry." The Forest Service has to do with the practical uses of forests and forest trees in the United States, and; first of all, with the commercial management of forest tracts, wood lots and forest plantations. Since Feb. 1, 1905, it has been charged, under the direction of the Secretary of Agriculture, with the administration of the National Forest Reserves. Since then the officers composing the executive force on the reserves have been members of its staff. This has brought the forest business of the Government under one head, and made it possible for the Forest Service to handle the reserves in a consistent, economical and scientific manner. Aside from the care and perpetuation of the national forests, the Forest Service is mainly devoted to such forest studies and undertakings as lie beyond the power of the means of individuals to carry on unaided. It stands ready to co-operate, to the limit of its resources, with all who seek assistance in the solution of practical forest problems, especially where such co-operation will result in setting up object lessons to serve as good and encouraging examples for the general benefit.

Co-operative State studies are carried on with States which request the advice of the service. An example of this work is the study of forest conditions in New Hampshire, completed in co-operation with that State, which appropriated $7,000 to be expended in this way. California, Maine, Maryland and Massachusetts have also called upon the service for expert assistance. The fruits of its more important studies are published in the form of bulletins and circulars, and are distributed to all without charge upon request, so long as the supply at the disposal of the Forester remains unexhausted.

ORGANIZATION.

The organization of the Forest Service is, in outline, as follows. The Forester is the administrative head of the service. His first assistant is the Associate Forester.

The offices in the service are: General inspection, law, publication and education, dendrology, grazing, record, reserve organization, forest management, forest extension, forest products.

The reserve organization now provides for a permanent field force containing the grades of forest inspector, assistant forest inspector, forest supervisor, forest assistant, forest ranger, deputy forest ranger, assistant forest ranger, and forest guard. Except in the cases of forest inspector, assistant forest inspector and forest assistant, whose compensations depend on varying circumstances, pay will be fixed as follows, as far as the necessary funds are available and the promotions earned: Forest supervisor $1,800 to $2,500, deputy forest supervisor $1,500 to $1,700, forest ranger $1,200 to $1,400, deputy forest ranger $1,000, assistant forest ranger $800 to $900, forest guard $600 to $720 per year.

APPOINTMENTS.

Appointments to technical positions in the service are made only from the lists of eligibles furnished, after examinations, to the U. S. Civil Service Commission. Examinations for the position of forest assistant are held annually at Washington, in the spring. Attendance at some forest school and actual experience in forest work are necessary qualifications. Successful candidates—eligibles—usually, though not necessarily, receive appointments. Supervisors' and rangers' examinations are held every spring in the West. Appointments are made only from the eligible lists of the Civil Service Commission. The position is filled as far as possible by the promotion, through examinations, of rangers to existing vacancies. Only legal residents between the ages of twenty-one and forty are eligible for these posts.

Co-Operative Farming.

At the close of 1905, 17,162 co-operative farming associations existed in the German Empire, with a membership of over one million farmers; 16,230 associations were confederated. Of 9,411 associations in Prussia, 6,059 facilitated credits to farmers, 776 attended to supply and demand, and 1,728 to dairying. In Bavaria 2,613 of 3,294 associations furnished credits to agricultural undertakings, 234 to supply and demand, 247 to dairying, and 200 to other purposes, all fostering mutual assistance to husbandmen. Loans amounting from $71,410,000 to $73,340,000 annually are given. In 1906 the co-operative bodies purchased fertilizers, forage, seed, coal and other items amounting to $12,062,500. The centers of supply and dairying in a comparatively short time realized over $965,000 on their transactions.

POPULATION OF NEW YORK CITY.

New York City, as constituted prior to the act of consolidation, effective Jan. 1, 1898, had a population in 1890 of 1,515,301, compared with a population in 1900 of 3,437,202, showing an apparent increase of 1,921,901, or 126.8 per cent.

In 1890 the city comprised all of what is now Manhattan and greater part of what is now the Bronx, but under the act of consolidation Kings Co., Richmond Co., the larger part of Queens Co. and a small part of Westchester Co. became a part of the city.

Manhattan comprises that part of the old city south of the Harlem River, this area being known formerly as Manhattan Island.

Bronx was formed from that part of the old City of New York lying north of the Harlem River and the small part of Westchester Co. annexed under the act of consolidation. All of this area was at one time a part of Westchester Co., but in 1873 the towns of Morrisania, West Farms and King's Bridge were annexed to New York; under consolidation, Jan. 1, 1898, all of the town of Westchester and parts of the towns of Eastchester and Pelham became a part of the city.

The towns of Flatbush, Flatlands, Gravesend and New Utrecht were absorbed by the City of Brooklyn in 1894, Flatbush becoming the 29th Ward, New Utrecht the 30th Ward, Gravesend the 31st Ward, Flatlands the 32d Ward. The city thus became coextensive with Kings Co., and on Jan.

1, 1898, Brooklyn became one of the five boroughs of what is now the City of New York.

Richmond County, or Staten Island, became the Borough of Richmond.

Queens Borough was organized at the same time from what was Long Island City, the towns of Flushing, Jamaica and Newtown, and a small portion of the town of Hempstead, all of which were civil divisions of Queens Co. The remaining towns of the county, Oyster Bay and North Hempstead, together with the greater part of the town of Hempstead, were taken to form the new county of Nassau. The 1st Ward of Queens Borough comprises what was formerly Long Island City, the 2d Ward what was formerly Newtown town, the 3d Ward what was formerly Flushing town, the 4th Ward what was formerly Jamaica town and the 5th Ward that part of the town of Hempstead now within the limits of the borough of Queens.

It is impossible to state definitely the population in 1890 of that part of the town of Hempstead, Queens Co., which became a part of Queens Borough, and of the parts of the towns of Eastchester and Pelham, Westchester Co., which became a part of Bronx Borough, but in the following is shown the estimated population for the City of New York, as now constituted, and in detail for each borough of the city, from 1790 to 1900:

The preceding table shows that the area comprised within the present limits of the City of New York had an estimated population of 49,401 in 1790, which had grown to 696,115 in 1850, representing an increase of 646,714, or 1,309.1 per cent. The population of the present City of New York had grown to 2,507,414 in 1890, or an increase since 1850 of 1,811,299, or 260.2 per cent. Since 1890 there has been an increase of 929,788, or 37.1 per cent., the population in 1900 being 3,437,202.

‡ Westward movement during preceding decade.

Total westward movement, 519 miles.

The center of the negro population in 1890 was near Rome, Ga., and was traveling Gulfward.

The center of area of the United States, excluding

Alaska and Hawaii and other recent accessions, is in Northern Kansas, in approximate latitude 39° 55', and approximate longitude 96° 50'. The center of population is therefore about three-fourths of a degree south and more than thirteen degrees east of the center of area.

Population of Incorporated Places in United States.

The estimated population of incorporated places in the United States with 10,000 inhabitants or

NEW YORK STATE CENSUS, 1905.

NEW YORK CITY.

The population of New York City on June 1, 1905, as actually enumerated, was 4,000,402, but from this total there was deducted 821 inmates of state and county institutions in the several boroughs of the city, which, under the plan of distributing the inmates of such institutions according to their actual residence at the time of admission to the institution, had been credited to other counties of the state, while there had been added 14,200 inmates of institutions who, at the time of their admission, were residents of New York City. These deductions and additions give a total population of 4,013,781, distributed by boroughs as follows:

Boroughs.	1905.	1900.	1890.
Manhattan .....	2,112,380	1,850,093	*1,441,216

Totals for city .....	4,013,781	3,487,202	2,507,414

*Estimated population of present area of boroughs.

These figures show an increase in population of N. Y. City from 1900 to 1905 of 576,579, or 16.8 per cent., as compared with an increase for the same area during the preceding 10 years of 923,788, or 37.1 per cent. The increases by boroughs are as follows:

Boroughs.	Increase 1900 to 1905.		Increase 1890 to 1900.

The plan of distributing the population of public institutions is not observed in the U. S. Census and the gains or losses thus due should be borne in mind in making comparisons with the last two federal censuses. The net gain or loss in population in 1905, due to distribution of inmates of state and county institutions, according to city or town of residence at admission is summarized by boroughs as follows:

Boroughs.	Net gain.		Net loss.
	Number.	Per cent.	Number.	Per cent.

The distribution of the population of Manhattan, Bronx, Brooklyn and Queens Boroughs by Assembly districts and of Richmond Borough by wards in 1905, compared with 1900, is as follows:

Villages Classified.

Under Chap. 602, Laws 1906, villages of N. Y. State are divided into classes according to their pop. as shown by the latest enumeration, village, state or federal, as follows: First class, villages containing a population of 5,000 or more; second class, villages containing a population of 3,000 and less than 5,000; third class, villages containing a population of 1,000 and less than 3,000; fourth class, villages containing a population of less than 1,000.

Transmission of Niagara Electricity

The Niagara, Lockport and Ontario Power Company will transmit electric power with aluminum cables as far east from Niagara as Syracuse, N. Y., a distance of 160 miles, and is considering a transmission line as far west as Cleveland, O., a distance of 200 miles. The Niagara and Syracuse line is partially finished. No current has been carried to New York City from Niagara, and it is stated that no corporation is at present planning to send Niagara electric power to New York, which would require a cable line of 400 miles.

POPULATION OF CITIES

having 25,000 inhabitants or more in 1900, arranged according to population. (The first column under each census year shows the order of the cities named when arranged according to population.)

A New Stadium for Athens.

Olympic games, held from April 22 to May 2, 1906, with such success in that city, and in which American athletes so successfully competed, have aroused a very general interest in athletics among the Greek people. As a result of this, two wealthy Greeks of Egypt, Messrs. Rostovits and Tsanakles, have presented $60,000 to the government for the erection of a gymnasium at Athens, the building and equipment of which will be personally superintended by Crown Prince Constantine. The Swedish system of gymnastics will be largely followed, and, if present plans are carried out, officers of the Swedish army will be employed as instructors. During the first three years the running expenses will be defrayed by the two founders.

VANDERBILT ELIMINATION.

The elimination race of 1906, to determine the American Vanderbilt Cup team, occurred over the Nassau circuit, Long Island, N. Y., Sat., Sept. 22, 1906. Jos. Tracy and his 90-h.p. locomobile won, beating out Le Blon and the Thomas, nearest competitors, by over 20 min. Third car was the 50-h.p. Haynes stock machine, driven by H. N. Harding. When these had finished the 257 mile journey, or ten times around the 25.7 mile course, the race was called off. The cup commission met later and selected the Pope-Toledo, driven by Herbert Lytle, and the Christie car of Walter Christie, as the other representatives of the team, as they were still supposed to be running when the event was called off.

Representatives of the Frayer-Miller car, driven by Frank Lawwell, which was also running, filed a protest against the Pope-Toledo on the ground that it was towed for some distance in order to start the motor. This protest was sustained by the commission and the Frayer-Miller was placed on the team in place of the Pope-Toledo, which was disqualified.

The first Vanderbilt cup race held on Oct. 8, 1904, was won by George Heath in a Panhard car. Albert Clement, in a Bayard-Clement, was second, and the only other car to finish. ## Royal Arcanum Minor League.

In 1899 the Brooklyn Daily Eagle presented a cup for competition to the Royal Arcanum Minor League (formerly the sub-tournament). Conditions stated that the trophy must be won three times, not necessarily consecutively, to become the permanent property of any club. The cup is about 3 feet high, of solid silver. On the onyx pedestal are 3 bowling pins and two balls, which support the cup. The inscription on the pedestal reads: "Presented by the Brooklyn Daily Eagle to the sub-tournament of the Royal Arcanum Bowling League of Brooklyn." The first series was won by East New York. In the season of 1900-1901 the cup was won by the Washington Irving Club, which beat the Gilbert team in the roll-off. Ft. Greene Council won the competition of 1901-1902, and repeated the performance in 1902-1903. Bushwick Council finished a close second. Williamsburg Council won the tournament for 1903-1904, with Berkeley in second place. Forty-five teams competed in the tournament for 1904-1905, which was won by Bedford Council, after a close series with East New York. In 1905-1906 Bedford Council won it again. Records of past tournaments can be found in the Eagle Almanacs of 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905 and 1906. The records of the season of 1906-1907 follow:

SKATING.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP.

The speed skating championship of the world took place at Helsinki, Finland, in Feb. and developed into an international tussle between Finland, Russia and Norway. A preliminary test of Norwegians and Finns had been made at Christiania, Feb. 17 and 18, when four skaters from each country competed for the Finnish Cup. The Norwegians won by 29 to 31 points. The first event at Helsinki was 500 metres, and J. Wikander, Helsinki, won, his time being 50½ sec.; R. Gundersen, second, 50½ sec.; N. Sedoff, Moscow, third, 53 sec. Sedoff won the 5,000 metres in 9 min. 45½ sec.; G. Stromsten, of Helsinki, was second, and E. Wanhola, of Wiborg, was third.

In the 1,500 metre race, Gundersen finished first, beating Stromsten and Sedoff, second and third respectively. The 10,000 metres, however, gave Sedoff his second victory and the time of 19 min. 3 5-8 sec. beat the former Finnish record. As no competitor won three events the championship for this season was left undecided.

At Sioux Falls, S. D., on Feb. 24, W. L. Fowler and J. W. Johnston, of Highland, broke all previous state records for long distance skating. White R. flows eastward near Highland, from which point the two started. They skated down White R. to where that stream flows into the Missouri R., and then northward on the Missouri to Chamberlain. The distance was approximately 125 miles.

At Duquesne Garden, Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 23, 8 laps to the mile, the best skaters of New York, Bklyn., Chicago and Canada fought it out for the 1 and 2 mile international amateur championships. Morris Wood of N. Y. City, won both firsts. Fred Robinson, of Canada, took second in the mile and Hemington, of Canada, second in the two mile event. Phil Kearney of the N. Y. Ath. C., took third in the mile, while Taylor, of the same club, took third in the two mile race. Wood's time for the two miles was 6 min. 31 secs.; for the mile, 2 min. 37 secs.

CALENDARS FOR TWO HUNDRED YEARS, 1752—A. D.—1952.

Copyright, 1906, by
C. A. Montgomery, New York

NOTE—The "Gregorian" or "New Style" calendar, replacing the "Old Style" or "Julian," originated by Julius Caesar, was first adopted in England in the year 1752 (although it had been in use in some parts of Europe as early as its introduction by Pope Gregory XIII, in 1582). Its adoption in 1752 necessitated the omission of 11 days in that year (Sept. 3 to 13, inclusive), that the difference between the "Old" and "New" styles might be properly adjusted.

DIRECTIONS—To find the complete Calendar for any year from A. D. 1753 to 1952, inclusive, refer to the "Key." The Calendar for the year is the one which appears under the letter printed opposite the year in the "Key"—thus: for the year 1800 refer to Calendar "D" or for 1906 refer to Calendar "B."

*For the year 1752, from Jan. 1 to Sept. 2, use Calendar "L," and from Sept. 14 to Dec. 31, use Calendar "O." (Sept. 3 to 13, inclusive, were omitted in 1752, in adopting and adjusting the "New Style" Calendar.)

Foreign Colonies in New York City.

MANHATTAN.

New York is probably the greatest cosmopolitan city in the world. In many instances foreigners have mixed in with the American population, but in most cases they have grouped themselves into colonies throughout the city. The Austrians and Hungarians are located on lower 2d av., "Little Hungary" lying in the neighborhood adjacent to the corner of 2d av. and E. Houston. Bohemians have settled on the east side, between 80th and 90th. Chinatown lies on Mott, Doyers and Pell, to the n. w. corner of Chatham sq. The French quarter is on 25th, 26th and 27th, west of 6th av. Greeks have colonized on Roosevelt. Germans may be found in the district north of Tompkins sq. There are three great Italian sections, one around Mulberry Bend Park on Mott, Mulberry, Elizabeth and E. Houston; another on Sullivan and Tompkins, North and south of Bleeker. The third, called "Little Italy," is located east of 3d av., between 110th and 116th. The "Ghetto" is north of Hester and east of the Bowery. The Jews occupy a large portion of the east side, but are most thickly settled east of the Bowery, between Hester and E. Houston. The negroes may be found on Minetta lane, on "San Juan Hill," located south of W. 59th, west of 9th av. and on W. 134th and 135th. Syrians and allied races reside on lower Washington.

BROOKLYN.

The Germans in Brooklyn occupy a large portion of Williamsburg centering around Leonard. There are many Italian quarters—one up the hill from Hamilton Ferry, in the streets north of Hamilton av., another on the streets under the Brooklyn bridge, another in the vicinity of Navy and Park av., another on Carlton av., between Atlantic av. and Fulton, another around Kent av. and N. 8th and east thereof. They are thickly settled in many sections in S. Bkln. The negro quarter is around Fleet and Willoughby. There is also a negro settlement on Lorimer, bet. Lee and Marcy. There is a small Norwegian and Swedish colony on Atlantic av. for several blocks below 3d av., and another in South Brooklyn, just past Greenwood cemetery. The Jewish quarters are three in number. One in Brownsville, in the lower end of East New York, centering around Rockaway and Thاتفord avs., and another on Moore and Seigel, another around Tompkins, Flushing and Harrison avs. The Syrians and allied races have settled several blocks on the river front, between President and Joralemon,

PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Headquarters, Park av. and 59th, Mhnt.

The Board of Education consists of forty-six members appointed by the Mayor Jan. 1, 1902, for a term of 5 years. It consists of 22 members from Manhattan, 14 from Brooklyn, 4 from The Bronx, 4 from Queens and 2 from Richmond. Members serve without pay and can hold no office of emolument under county, State or municipal government, except notary public, commissioner of deeds or officer in the National Guard. They may be removed by the Mayor after a hearing for neglect or misconduct, and the Mayor has power to fill all vacancies. The Board of Education has management and control of the public schools and public school system of the city, and possesses powers and privileges of a corporation. On the first Monday of Feb. in each year the board organizes by the election of one of its members as Pres. It has power to appoint a Sec. of the Board, a Supt. of School Buildings, term six years; a Supt. of School Supplies, term six years; a City Supt. of Schools, term six years; a Supervisor of Lectures, term six years; one or more Auditors, a Chief Clerk and such other officers, clerks or subordinates as necessary. The City Supt. of Schools has the right of visitation and inquiry in all of the schools of the city, and reports to the Board on the educational system of the city and the condition of the schools. He has a seat in the Board of Education and the right to speak on all matters before the board, but not to vote. He must make an annual report to the Board. The Supt. of School Buildings is the executive officer of the Board in respect to all matters relating to the school buildings. The Supt. of School Supplies is executive officer of the Board in respect to the purchase, storing and distribution of supplies, printing for the Board, transportation of school children, etc.

There are 46 local School Board Districts—22 in Manhattan, 14 in Brooklyn, 4 in The Bronx, 4 in Queens and 2 in Richmond. In each district there is a Local School Board of 7 members—5 appointed by the Pres. of the Borough, a member of the Board of Education designated by the Pres. of that Board and the District Supt. in the district. This term of Local School Board members is 5 years. The duties of a Local Board are: To visit and inspect schools in the district; report thereon to the Board of Education; to recommend sites and erection of buildings as necessary or desirable; report to the Board of Education dereliction of duty on the part of the Supt. of Supplies, Supt. of School Buildings, City Supt. or any of their deputies, assistants or employees; to excuse absences of teachers within the district, subject to the approval of the Board of Supts. where teachers are excused with pay; to try and determine all matters relating to discipline, corporal punishment and other matters of administration arising on complaint of pupils, parents or guardians against teachers or principals; to try charges made by principal district superintendent, parent or guardian against a teacher for gross misconduct, insubordination, neglect of duty or inefficiency; to present charges of any dereliction of duty on the part of janitors; to procure enforcement of the law and by-laws of the Board of Education relating to the sanitary condition of schools and the health of pupils; to transfer teachers from school to school within their districts, provided the transfer shall not involve promotion or salary increase; and to report all vacancies in the teaching force as soon as they occur. The Board of Education also has power to appoint 8 Associate City Supts. for a term of 6 yrs. each, who with the City Supts. constitute the Board of Supts. and to appoint, upon the nomination of the Board of Supts. 26 District Supts. to visit and inspect schools. The Board of Education may establish and conduct elementary schools, kindergartens, manual training schools, trade schools, truant schools, ev'g schools, vacation schools, free lectures and course of instruction for the people of N. Y. City, special classes, high schools, training schools for teachers and playgrounds in connection with the public schools. It may establish new schools and discontinue or consolidate existing schools. All applicants for licenses to teach are examined by the Board of Examiners consisting of the City Supt. and four examiners appointed by Board of Education upon the nomination of City Supt. and no person may teach in the public schools without a license. Principals, branch principals, heads of depts., teachers, assistants and all other members of the teaching staff are appointed by the Board of Education on nomination of Board of Supts. Nominations and appointments are made, except in cases of high schools or training schools for teachers, for the several Local School Board Districts, respectively, and of principals, teachers, et al. from the eligible lists prepared by the Board of Examiners in order of the standing of candidates, provided, that the Board of Supts. may consider for each appointment the 3 highest names on the appropriate list.

The Board of Education has power to fix the salaries of members of supervising and teaching staff, salaries to be uniform in all boroughs. Salaries are fixed by the Davis law. The Board of Estimate and Apportionment is required to appropriate for the General School Fund for the payment of salaries an amount equivalent to not less than 4 mills on every dollar of assessed valuation of real and personal estate in the city liable to taxation. The title to all property owned or acquired for educational purposes is vested in The City of New York, but is under the control of the Board of Education. The schools shall be free to all persons between 4 and 21 years of age, except that no child under 6 years shall be received except in kindergarten classes. The Board of Education purchases all books, apparatus, stationery, etc., and upon recommendation of Board of Supts. approves text books, apparatus, etc., for use in the schools. All supplies are obtained by contract if possible. Money for the schools is raised by taxation in two funds—the special school fund and the general school fund. The general fund is for payment of all salaries. The special fund embraces all moneys not comprised in the general fund. The Board has the management of the public school teachers' retirement fund. It makes an annual report to the Mayor between Aug. 1 and Nov. 30, on conditions for the preceding school year, and another report between Jan. 1 and Feb. 15, on the amount of money expended during preceding year. Members of the Board of Education, together with the Pres. of the Normal College, constitute the Board of Trustees of the Normal College, which is a separate and distinct organization furnishing education gratuitously to girls, pupils in the common schools of the city, or actual residents of the city. The Board of Trustees has the powers and duties required of trustees of colleges by the Revised Statutes.

HALL OF FAME.

In March, 1906, Chancellor MacCracken, of New York University, announced that $250,000 had been given that institution for a Hall of Fame of great Americans. The conditions were that fifty names might be chosen in 1900 and five more each succeeding five years through the twentieth century. No person should be eligible who was not born in what is now the territory of the United States and who had not been dead for ten years when his or her name was chosen. The Senate of the University received suggestions for the first fifty places until May. Then 100 electors from all the 45 States were asked to complete the roll of nominations and to indicate each one his choice of 50 names. No name was eligible which did not receive 51 votes from this board. Upon Oct. 1, 1900, 97 judges having voted, it appeared that 20 names had received a majority of 51 votes. These were approved by the Senate (which has the power of veto), the number of votes for each being as follows: George Washington, 97; Abraham Lincoln, 96; Daniel Webster, 96; Benjamin Franklin, 94; Ulysses S. Grant, 93; John Marshall, 91; Thomas Jefferson, 91; Ralph Waldo Emerson, 87; Robert Fulton, 86; Henry W. Longfellow, 85; Washington Irving, 83; Jonathan Edwards, 82; Samuel F. B. Morse, 82; David G. Farragut, 79; Henry Clay, 74; Nathaniel Hawthorne, 73; George Peabody, 74; Peter Cooper, 69; Robert E. Lee, 68; Eli Whitney, 69; John James Audubon, 67; Horace Mann, 67; Henry Ward Beecher, 64; James Kent, 65; Joseph Story, 64; John Adams, 62; William E. Channing, 63; Gilbert Stuart, 62; Asa Gray, 61.

In Oct., 1905, under the rules named above, the Senate received the ballots of 95 electors out of 101 appointed, of whom only 85 undertook to consider the names of women. A majority of 51 was demanded, but in the case of the names of women a majority of only 47. The following persons were found to be duly chosen: John Quincy Adams, 60; James Russell Lowell, 60; William Tecumseh Sherman, 58; James Madison, 58; John Greenleaf Whittier, 53; Alexander Hamilton, 58; Louis Agassiz, 53; John Paul Jones, 55; Mary Lyon, 59; Emma Willard, 50; Maria Mitchell, 48.

A bronze tablet for each of these eleven names has been designed by the Tiffany Studios and will be unveiled on Decoration Day, 1907, at which date at least one bronze bust or statue will be placed upon the parapet over the tablet of the famous American whom it commemorates.

The School Ship "St. Marys."

Application for admission to the Nautical School may be made in writing to Chairman of Executive Committee on the Nautical School, Board of Education, Park av. and 59th St., or in person to the Supt., on board the St. Marys, ft. 24th, East River.

The object of this school is to provide officers for the merchant marine. The course is two years and no expense is attached to it beyond the sum of $25, which must be deposited upon admission, and the providing of a sundry list of articles. For this the student is provided with uniforms and board, instructed in common school branches and given instruction and training in seamanship and navigation. Two summer cruises are taken in foreign waters, and during this period the senior class is provided with sextants, chronometers and charts, and each one has to navigate the ship, finding latitude and longitude by observations of the sun, moon, planets or stars, plotting each day's position on the chart from the time the ship leaves Montauk Point in May until she returns in Oct. About April 20 the ship goes into L. I. Sound for a month of exercise. The ship then proceeds to sea, and usually touches at some of the following ports: Azores Islands; Southampton, England; Cherbourg, France; Lisbon, Portugal; Cadiz, Spain; Gibraltar and the Madeira Islands. The rest of the summer is spent in practical exercises on our coast until the middle of Oct., when the vessel returns to her dock in New York, ft. of E. 24th St. Supt., Gustavus C. Hanus.

The Hall of Fame is a semi-circular edifice, chiefly of granite, which connects two of the University buildings at University Heights, and comprises a museum of seven rooms on the ground floor and a colonnade above over 400 feet in length. In Feb., 1904, the plan was announced of an additional structure in the form of a loggia, joining the colonnade on the north, having 30 panels for foreign born Americans, six to be filled in 1905, and beyond this of a Hall of Fame for women, about 30 by 60 feet, with a museum on the ground floor and a main story above of 26 columns, supporting a pedimented roof, with places for 60 tablets, 10 to be filled in 1905. The Hall was dedicated May 30, 1901, when twenty-five or more national associations each unveiled one of the bronze tablets in the colonnade, after the oration by Senator Chauncey M. Depew.

To reach Hall of Fame, take either (1) Subway Kingsbridge Express to 181st st, with transfer to Aqueduct av trolley direct to University Campus; (2) N. Y. C. R. ## Carnegie Pension for Teachers.

The trustees of the Carnegie Fund, established in April, 1905, to provide retirement pensions for teachers in undenominational universities, colleges, and technical schools in the United States and Canada, announced in June last the first selection of men who are to be benefited by the fund. Fifty teachers retiring from active duty at the end of the college year were chosen.

The total sum that will be distributed among them annually will approximate $70,000, or an average of $1,400, the highest single amount being $3,000 and the lowest $1,000. The list includes the names of the following prominent teachers: John Krom Rees, of Columbia, who has held the chair of astronomy since 1892. Henry M. Baird, who was professor of Greek at New York University for forty-seven years. Hiram Corson, of Cornell, who held the chair of English literature from 1870 till 1903, when he was made professor emeritus. Edward Williams Morley, who was professor of chemistry at Western Reserve University. George Trumbull Ladd of Yale, who was one of the foremost professors of philosophy in America.

The City of Brooklyn was authorized to erect a section of the Museum building at a cost of $337,000. A tract of land bounded by Eastern Parkway, Washington av., a line 100 feet south on the southern boundary of old President st. on the south, and land reserved for Prospect Hill Reservoir on the west, containing 11 9-10 acres and valued at $600,000, was leased by the former City of Brooklyn to the Institute for a term of 100 years. Second section of Museum completed in Nov., 1904, at cost of $450,000. Third section is now under process of construction.

On this site the first section of the Museum building was completed in May, 1897, and opened to the public June 2, 1897. The entire structure, when completed, will cover an area of 560 feet square, with 4 interior courts. The plan provides for collections, illustrating the general history of Art and Architecture on the first floor, rooms for the illustration of the practical Arts and Sciences on the second floor, and galleries for the illustration of the history of Painting, Engraving, Etching and Decorative Art on the third floor. The central portion of the building is carried one story higher than the rest, and in this the Schools of Fine Arts and of Architecture will be located. A second building in Bedford Park, on Brooklyn av., is used as an auxiliary to the main Museum.

The Museum is open week days, 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.; Thursday evenings, 7:30 to 9:45; Sundays, 2 to 6 P.M. On Mondays and Tuesdays a fee of 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children is charged. On other days admission is free, including holidays.

Schools for Librarians.

Thirteen library schools have been organized within 15 years to meet the demand for systematic training of librarians and assistants. Men and women are admitted. The N. Y. State Library School at Albany, established in 1887, is the parent school. The requirements for admission are a complete college course. Diplomas from accredited colleges admit students without examination. The standard of the school, both in entrance requirements and the course of study, which covers two years, is being raised from year to year.

The Pratt Institute Library School, Bkln., admits students only by competitive examinations, which are not technical, but are designed to test the general information of the applicant, especially knowledge of literature, history, current events, French and German. Examinations take place every June. The class is limited to 25. The course of study is for one year, with second year elective courses.

CITIZENSHIP, NATURALIZATION, RESIDENCE AND QUALIFICATION OF VOTERS.

Citizenship—The State and Federal statutes declare the following persons to be citizens:

All persons born in United States and not subject to any foreign power, excluding Indians not taxed.

All persons legally naturalized.

All children born out of jurisdiction of United States, whose fathers are at time of their birth citizens thereof, but the right of citizenship shall not descend to children whose fathers have never resided in the United States.

A child born in a foreign country of a mother who is a citizen of the United States is not himself a citizen by reason of his mother's citizenship. The inhabitants of Hawaii are citizens of the United States by virtue of annexation. The inhabitants of the Philippines and Porto Rico, while entitled to protection of the United States under the Constitution, cannot enjoy the privileges of citizenship until Congress sees fit to admit them to the Union as States, or organizes them under a territorial form of government.

Naturalization—The applicant for citizenship must have resided in United States for the continued term of at least 5 years next preceding his admission, and 1 year within State or Territory where the act is held to admit him. Not less than 2 nor more than 7 years before his admission he must declare, on oath or affirmation, before any court of record, with seal, of unlimited jurisdiction, of any State or Territory, or before a Circuit or District Court of the United States, his intention to become a citizen, etc. The language excludes County Courts, hitherto having jurisdiction. Any person over 18 years of age may declare intention and every person must declare intention. There is a fee of $1 for receiving and filing declaration of intention; of $2 for filing petition, and of $2 for making final order and issuing citizenship certificate. Question blanks for first or final papers may be had from court clerk.

Children of a naturalized citizen who become residents of the United States during their minority are entitled to citizenship without being naturalized.

Allens of the age of 21 years and upward, who have enlisted in the armies of the United States, in the regular or volunteer forces, and have been honorably discharged, are entitled to become citizens upon petition, without previous declaration of intention, and are not required to prove more than 1 year's residence.

APPLICATIONS FOR PATENTS.

Applications for letters patent must be made to the Commissioner of Patents, and signed by inventors. It is advisable that applicants employ competent attorneys to prosecute their cases. The office can not aid in selecting such, but has a list from which selections can be made. Specification and claim must be signed by inventor and attested by two witnesses.

The oath made is that inventor believes himself to be original and first discoverer of the art, machine, manufacture, composition, or improvement; that he does not believe or know that it was ever before known or used, and the country of which he is a citizen or subject. This oath may be made before any authorized persons in United States, or before any minister, charge d'affaires, consul or commercial agent, holding a commission under the U. S. Government.

Drawings must be artistically executed. The Patent Office will make necessary corrections at the applicant's option and cost. The office will furnish drawings at cost for applicants who desire that assistance. A working model is often desirable. Applications filed are classified according to the various arts, and are examined in order of filing. Upon rejection of application examiner must cite the best references at his command. If domestic patents be cited, their dates and numbers, the names of the patentees, and the classes of invention are stated. The applicant may amend before or after first rejection or action, and he may amend as often as the examiner presents new reasons for rejection, showing how amendments avoid references and objections. Patents for designs are granted for 3½, 7 or 14 years.

A reissue is granted to original patentee when original patent is inoperative on account of defective specification. Provisions are made for hearings before the commissioner, and interviews with examiners.

Any citizen who has made a new invention or discovery and desires further time to mature same may, on payment of $10, file in Patent Office a caveat setting forth objects and characteristics of the invention. Such caveat is operative for one year.

Following is a schedule of fees, paying in advance: Filing original application, $15; issuing of patent, $20; designs (3½ yrs.), $10; designs (7 yrs.), $15; designs (14 yrs.), $30; caveats, $10; reissue, $30; filing disclaimer, $10. Certified copies of patents, 10c. per 100 words. Certified copies, printed patents, 80c. Uncertified printed copies of specifications and drawings or any number of unclassified copies, 5c. each. For copies by sub-classes, 3c. each. Copies by classes, 2c. each. Recording every assignment, agreement, power of attorney, or other paper of 300 words or under, $1. For every 300 and under 1,000 words, $2. For over 1,000 words, $3. A receipt or certificate of deposit must be filed in the office within 10 days after money is paid.

Frederick I. Allen, Commissioner of Patents, Washington, D. C.

Susan B. Anthony, born at South Adams, Mass., of Quaker parentage, Feb. 15, 1820, died in Rochester, N. Y., March 13, 1906, was educated at Friends' School, Philadelphia; at 32 abandoned teaching school and entered the lecture field; in 1852 organized the Women's New York State Temperance Society; in 1854 started the movement for woman suffrage; in 1868 started publication of The Revolution; in 1892 succeeded Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton as president of the National Woman's Suffrage Assn., delivering her farewell address from its incumbency in February, 1899.
